CLASS POEM

Soon we are to graduate,
To find a new and open gate.

We'll leave our friends and schoolmates dear
And try to find a new career;

But after many years go by,
We'll still remember Tallmadge
High.

The classes, teachers, friends,
and band,
The clubs and games have been so grand.

No one knows what is to come,
But the future will be bright for some.

Our life shall be our treasure chest
And living it, we'll do our best.

But when we go into the world,
It's life's huge scheme to be unfurled.

With help of God to guide our way,
We all shall meet again some day.

CLASSMEN

UNDERCLASSMEN

Underclassmen are important, too.
They sponsor lots of things for you.
They help to brighten up the day
With their faces bright and gay.
They also give the school a lot
Of talent and ambition they have got.
And remember, someday they will be
The Seniors such as now are we.

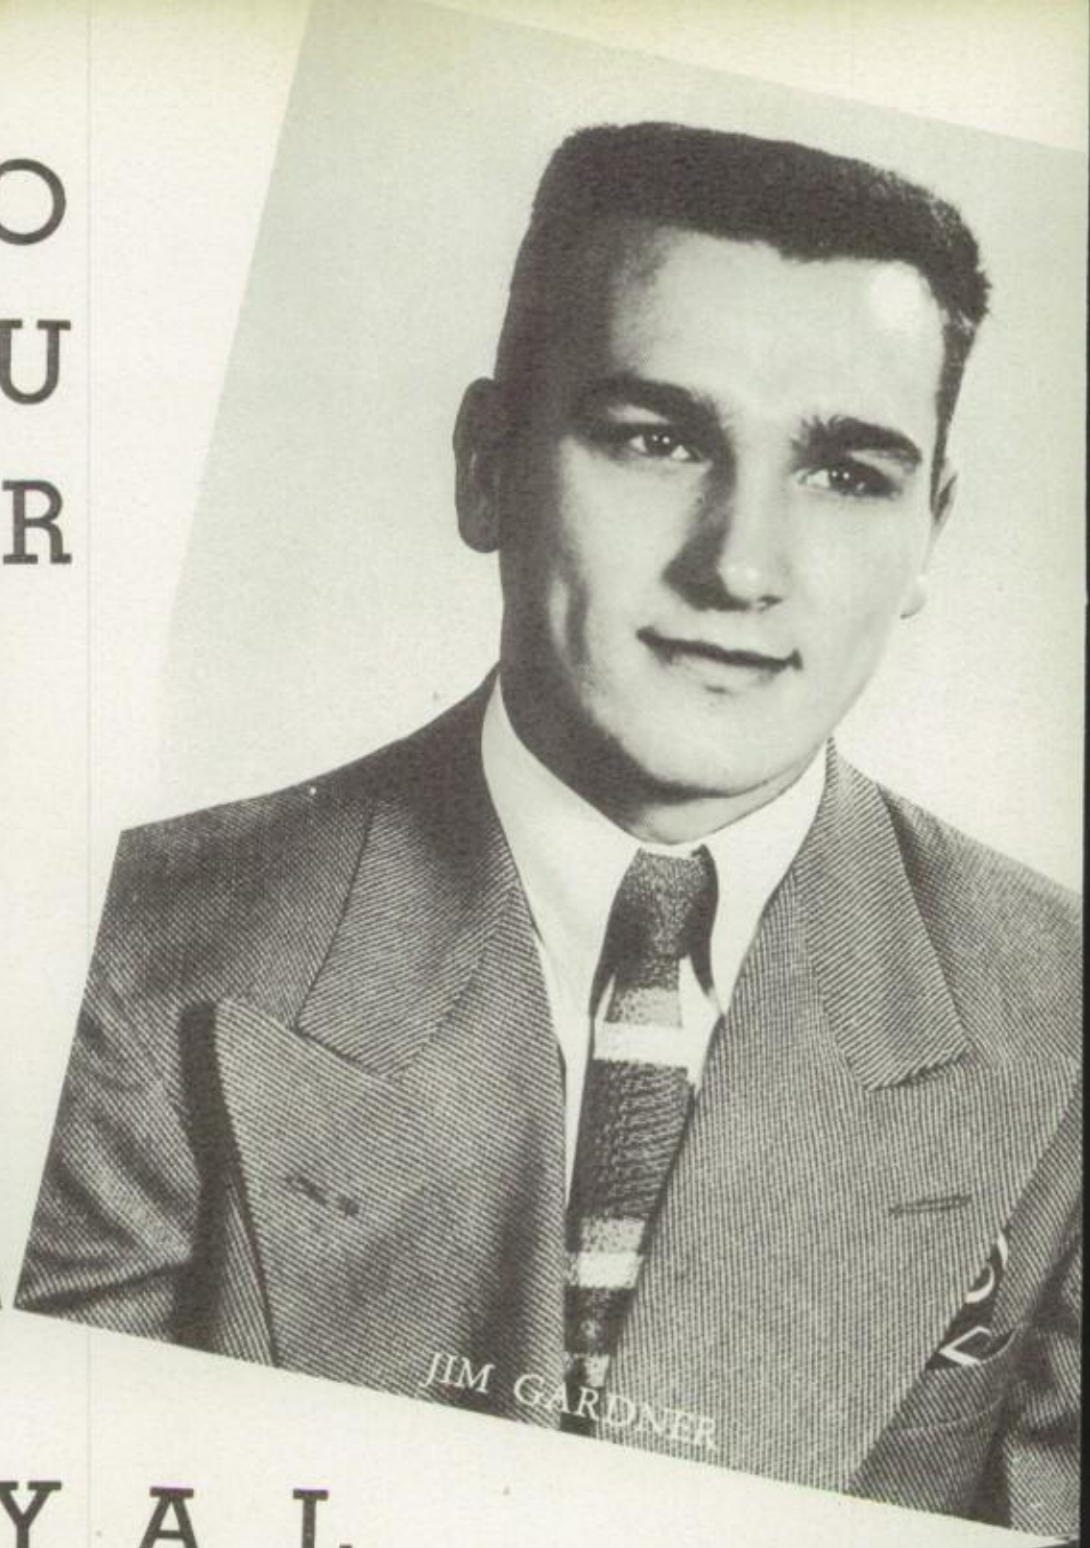
KING CHARLES JACKSON

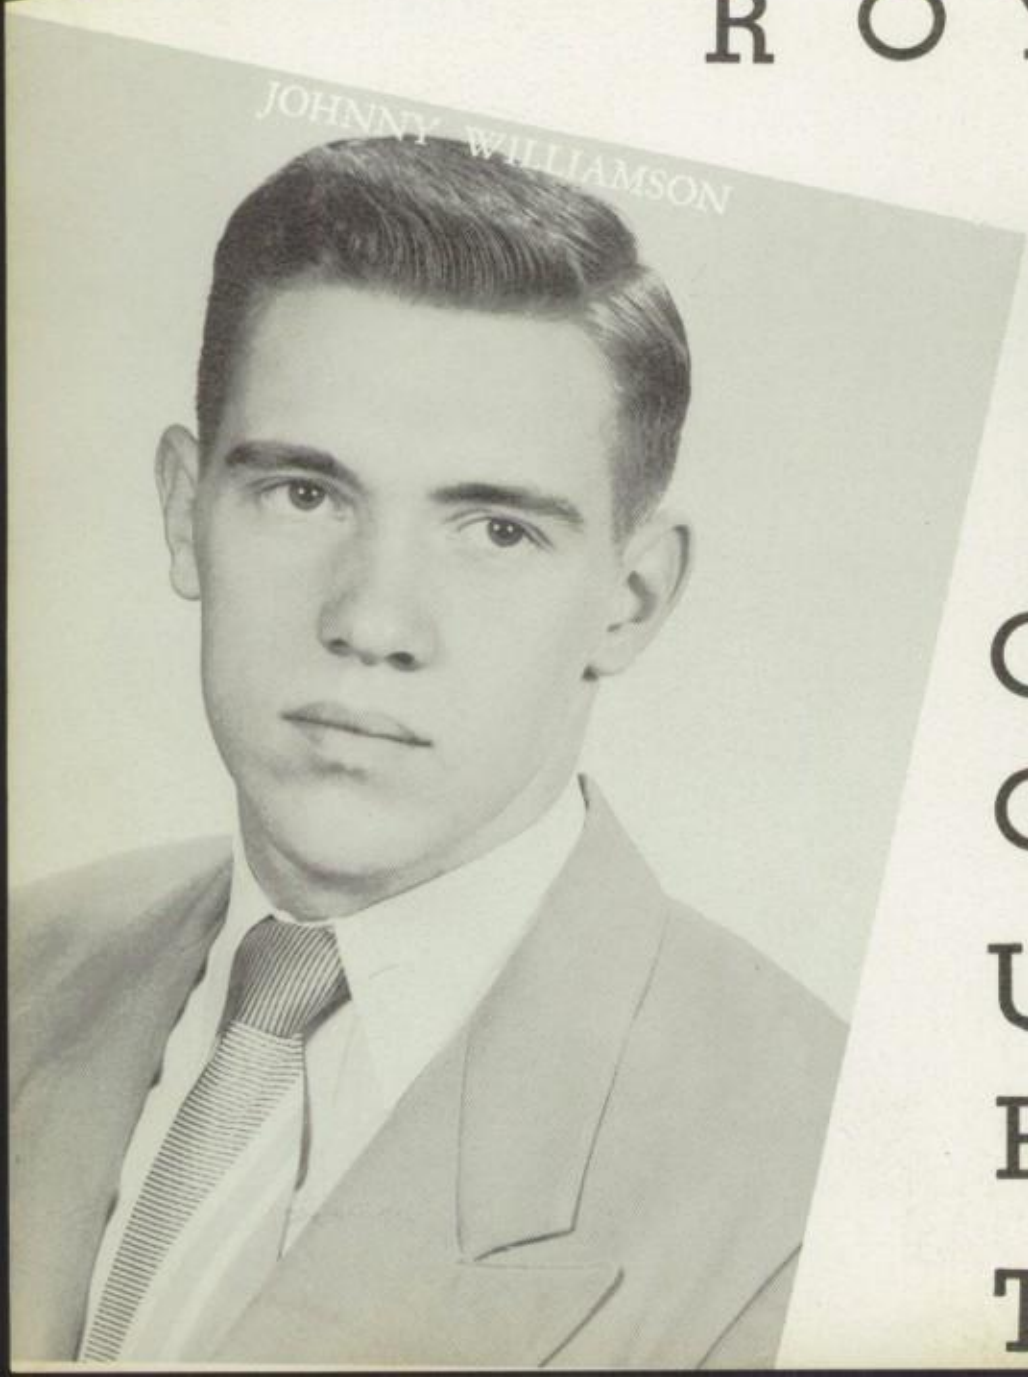
QUEEN FAY JONES

OUR ROYAL COURT

JANET WHEATLEY



JIM GARDNER



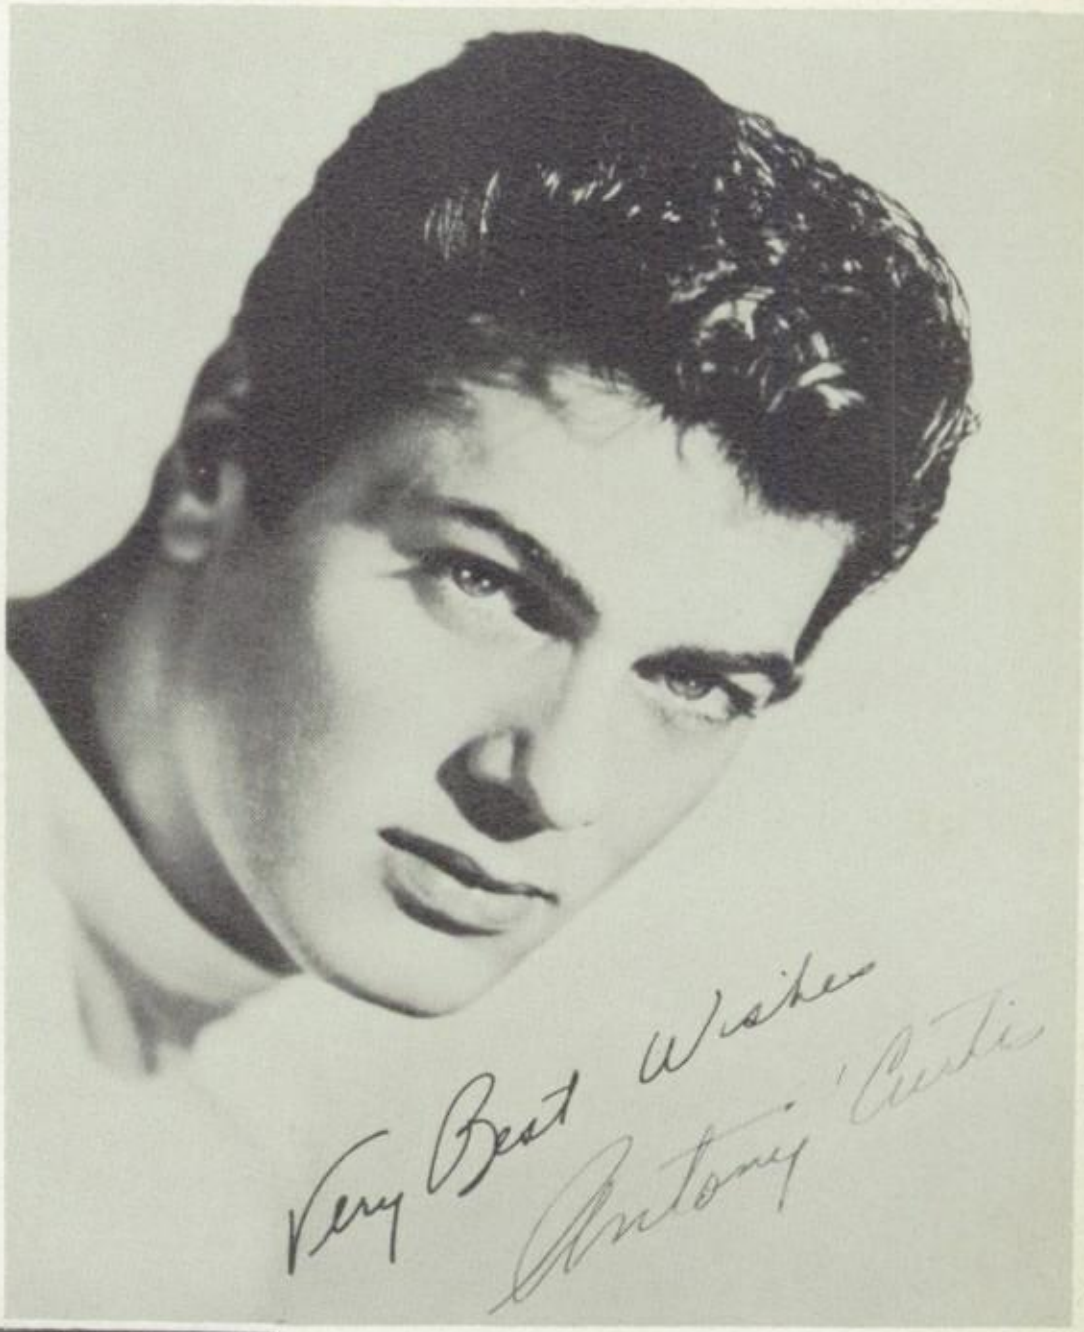
JOHNNY WILLIAMSON

JO DEWEY

Tony Curtis chooses Fay Jones as Queen of the Circle Light.

"Received the pictures and before I tell you my choice I would like you to please tell the two runners-up that they, too, are lovely, but my choice for Queen would be No. 1.

"Thank you for selecting me to judge your contest, it was a lot of fun and I hope that you and the staff will agree with my choice."



Kyle MacDonnell chooses Charles Jackson as King of the Circle Light.

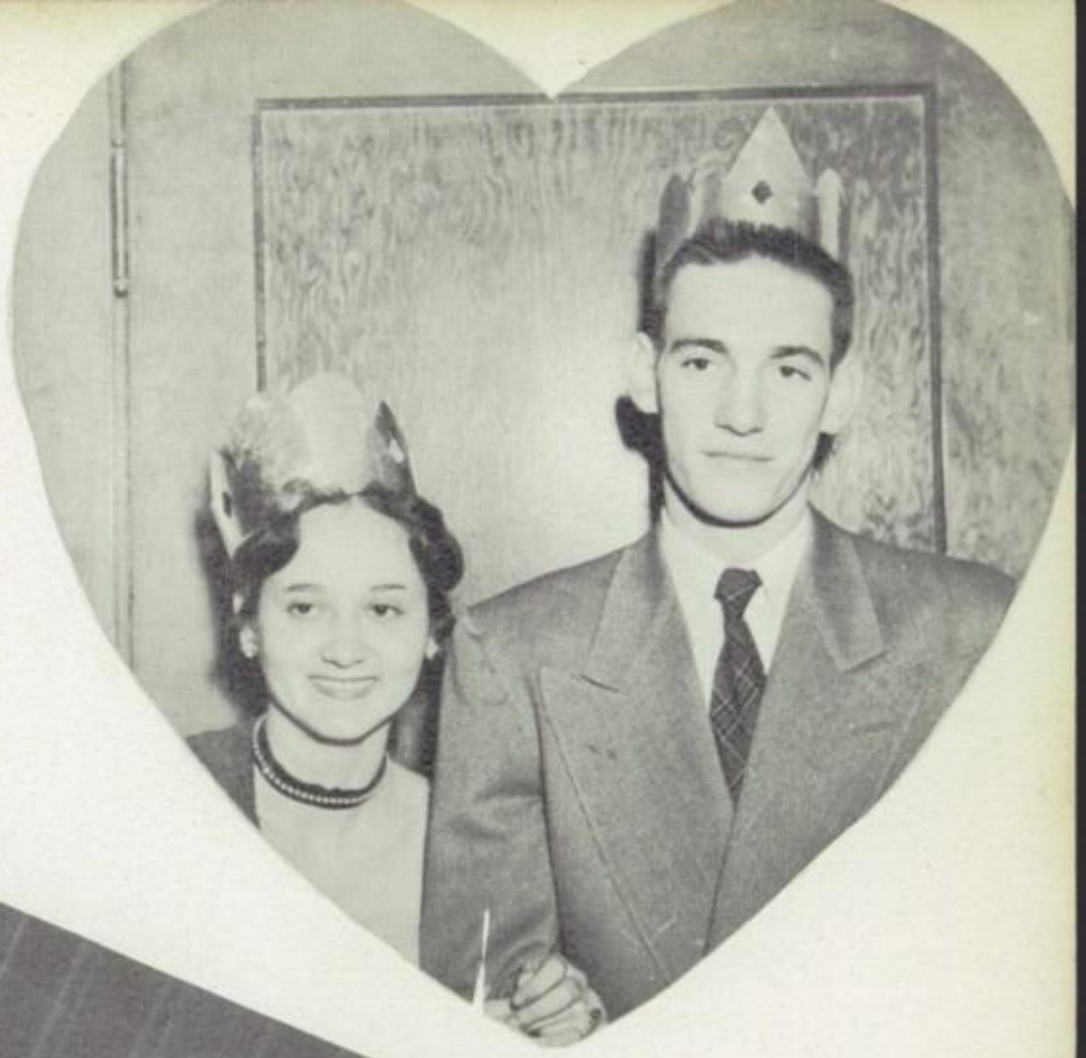
"This is my choice—Charles Jackson—although it was very difficult, as all three boys are so attractive. Hope I've picked the favorite."

Each year a Homecoming King and Queen are nominated by the football team and elected by the student body. An excited eager crowd at the Tallmadge-Norton game awaited the announcement of this year's King and Queen—Don Freed and Nancy Ross.

The following evening Don and Nancy were crowned and reigned over the Homecoming Dance.

SWEETHEART DANCE

The Sweetheart Dance is sponsored annually by the FHA. Two candidates are nominated by each class, then the entire student body selects the king and queen.



Pat Lezak and Dick Twigg reigned as king and queen. In the royal court were Marjorie Pfeifle and Dick Groves, Juniors; Jean Jackson and Merle Hood, Sophomores; and Ruth Finch and Don Patten, Freshmen.

STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS

President	Bob Shultz
Vice-President	Don Freed
Secretary	Sophie Petrovic
Treasurer	Pat Lezak
Advisor	Miss Alexis

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council is an organization made up of representatives from the student body. The club is more or less a governmental group. Each year Student Council sponsors a number of paid assemblies, Award Day, and Friendship Day. The group also sponsors dances at noon. As a means of making money, Council sells candy at noon. The main projects this year were purchasing a water cooler and compiling a handbook for new high school students.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

National Honor Society is an honorary organization. Members are chosen for their character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Induction of new members is held every Spring. This ceremony is solemn and impressive as well as beautiful. A yellow rose, the club flower, and a pin are presented to each new member. Sometime following the induction, a banquet is held. Honor Society sponsors individual student pictures as its main money-making project each year. Officers: President, John Doepker; Vice-President, Doris Swartz; Secretary, Helen Disselhoff; Treasurer, Dottie Acken; Advisor, Mrs. Knapp.

"THE CIRCLE LIGHT"

Twelve seniors and three juniors are chosen each year to work together to present the annual to the school. The juniors, who are chosen, are given the positions of editor, art editor and business manager the following year. This year the annual was edited by Fay Jones with Ann LeBaron acting at business manager. The advisor was Miss Leasure.

BLU-GOLD PARADE

The purpose of the "Blu-Gold Parade," Tallmadge's monthly newspaper, is to reflect school and community news and to provide a workshop for students to practice writing, interviewing, salesmanship, and other literary and business practices. The "Blu-Gold Parade" is supported entirely by advertisements and subscriptions. This year the paper is edited by Helen Disselhoff. Mr. Brubaker is the advisor.

HI-Y

The purpose of the Hi-Y is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school high ideals of Christian character. Some of the activities of this organization, in addition to the monthly meetings, have been a Father and Son Banquet, the Thanksgiving assembly, and the induction services held at the Congregational Church.

President, Lynn Burks; Vice-President, Don Freed; Secretary, John Williamson; Treasurer, Don Faught; Chaplain, David Canady; Advisor, Mr. Ocasek.

Y-TEEN

The purpose of the Tallmadge Y-Teen Club is: "To build a fellowship of women and girls devoted to the task of realizing in our common life those ideals of personal and social living as Christians. In this endeavor we seek to understand Jesus, to share His love for all people, and to grow in the knowledge and love to God."

Officers this year were Nancy Ross, President; Shirley Bishop, Vice-President; Charlene Ross, Secretary; Lauretta Jones, Treasurer; Helen Disselhoff, Chaplain; Mrs. Cox and Miss Miracle, Advisors.

DRAMATICS CLUB

The Dramatics Club has been formed to further interest in dramatic productions. Upon receiving ten points, a member becomes a Thespian. During the year, plays are staged using club members. This year a drama clinic was attended.

Officers: John Doepker, Pres.; John Williamson, V.-Pres.; Ann LeBaron, Sec.; Shirley Bishop, Treas.; Mr. Brubaker, Advisor.

SCHOOL PATROL

The safety of the students of Tallmadge, as they go to and from school, is the responsibility of the School Patrol. This organization is entirely voluntary, and the members work as a unit with David Grand as Laiason Officer and Wilfred Pursley as Captain. Officer Sam Andrews supervises the work of the Patrol while they direct traffic at the Circle. Mr. Metro is the advisor.

DEBATE

Two years ago the first debate team, consisting of four people, was organized. It grew to sixteen during that year and won enough points to receive a charter from the National Forensic League. This year the club initiated sixteen new members, took part in the Prince of Peace Contest, and sponsored a debate tournament. First semester officers: Barbara Huber, Pres.; Steve Huber, V.-Pres.; Helen Disselhoff, Sec.; Bruce Wetzel, Treas. Second semester officers: Helen Disselhoff, Pres.; Janice Weister, V.-Pres.; Barbara Webster, Sec.; Bruce Wetzel, Treas.; Mr. Ocasek, Advisor.

F. H. A.

The Tallmadge Future Homemakers of America Chapter is only one of many in the county and state, all of which are affiliated with the National Association. One of our members, Dottie Acken, is the county chapter president. Members can work for three degrees in the club, two of which, the Junior and Chapter, may be obtained locally. The State Homemakers' Degree is conferred at the annual state meeting in Columbus in April. The Club's money-making project is selling potato chips at noon. This helps defer the expense of girls going to FHA Camp in the summer. The girls filled three baskets for needy families at Christmas. The club has had two parties. The first was a scavenger hunt followed by a chili supper. Then there was a very successful Christmas party with games and exchanging of gifts.

Officers: President, Carol Golden; Vice-President, Dottie Acken; Treasurer, Marjorie Ripley; Secretary, Marilyn Ripley; Advisor, Miss Rohlf.

GLEE CLUB

The choral group is made up of high school students. They sing all types of songs ranging from popular to semi-classical. They always participate in the Spring Festival. Donald E. Owen is the director of the group.

BAND

Donald E. Owen has made his band widely known during the past seven years. The group has played at the Cleveland Browns' game in the Rubber Bowl and during half-time at all the THS football games. In addition to the football games, the band has participated in many band shows and contests. This group gives a Spring Concert and takes part in the County Festival. Yes, Tallmadge can be proud of her band and the capable leader who, along with the students, has put many hours of hard work into practice during and after school. This year's officers were Doris Swartz, President; Homer Byrd, Vice-President; Ann LeBaron, Secretary and Treasurer; Louis Gusbar and Don Patten, Librarians; Mr. Owen, Advisor.

T-CLUB

The purpose of the club is to further interest in girls' sports. T-Club not only does things in school but also outside. One of the main things is a volleyball game or two with the teachers. An annual event is a dance. This year's dance was the biggest success it has ever been. Only a certain percentage of the class can be made members.

Officers: President, Shirley Bishop; Vice-President, Jo Dewey; Secretary, Phyllis Briggs; Treasurer, Shirley Blaydes; Advisor, Miss Fairbanks.

G. A. A.

The purpose of GAA is to further good sportsmanship and cooperation through girls' athletics. The most important project of the year is the play days. These are promoted to put to active use our purposes of sportsmanship and cooperation. Most widely known is the noon program consisting of basketball and volleyball tournaments followed by other sports later in the year.

Officers: President, Cecelia Parker; Vice-President, Marjorie Ripley; Secretary, Marilyn Ripley; Treasurer, Nancy McGuire; Advisor, Miss Fairbanks.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club is an active organization whose primary purpose is to forward interest in the scientific field. Members must maintain a certain scholastic average in the scientific subject they are taking. First and foremost in the club program is the completion of a project in any of the main divisions—biological, chemical and electrical. The projects are exhibited at the annual Science Day at Kent State University. Each year the club sponsors the Sadie Hawkins Day Dance. School supplies are sold as a source of income. Officers for 1952-1953 were Bill Kirby, President; Norman Smith, Vice-President; Steve Huber, Secretary (first semester); Judy Bishop, Secretary (second semester); Bruce Wetzel, Treasurer; Mrs. Knapp, Advisor.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

Juniors and Seniors are eligible for membership into Commercial Club. The club sponsors an annual variety show. Another event of the club is a Christmas party for underprivileged children. The members also look into different jobs and the qualifications and education necessary for them. Officers are: President, Doris Swartz; Vice-President, Fay Jones; Secretary, Shirley Bishop; Treasurer, Peggy Childs; Advisor, Miss Leasure.

LATIN CLUB

Latin Club is open to any student who has taken one year of Latin. A formal and an informal initiation of new members is held each year. The Roman Banquet is the most important event for the club members. This year the club presented the High School Christmas Assembly. As a money making project, members sold refreshments at three of the basketball games. The main project for this year was the purchase of a picture for study hall. Officers: President, Pat Booker; Vice-President, Michael Hersek; Secretary, Janet Bauer; Treasurer, Ernest Miller; Advisor, Mrs. Weir.

SPORTS

Sports develop sportsmanship
For both the players and the crowd.
The band plays at all the games,
While the cheerleaders shout out their aims.
The crowd goes wild as the teams begin
To battle out another win.
Sports in our school are a must,
Win or lose, they build up trust.

METRO CHAMPS

The football team was the pride of Tallmadge this year. Looking over the season you'll see the reasons why it was our pride. It brought us team spirit, school spirit, and community spirit.

Look over the games of the season; see the chain of victories and look at the very first game of the year. There, staring you in the face, you see our only defeat. A defeat by a team that was, by all means, not the best. Yet this game may have been the cause of it all. It might have been this very game that gave us the fighting spirit to triumph over all, for after that defeat we met Wadsworth, Coventry, Stow, and the rest of the schedule with one victory after another. We left our last year's only pitfall, Rittman, with a stinging defeat.

Then came the two mighty win or die games. Springfield, with its unscored upon record, loomed before us. Challenging us to—if we dare—score on them. It took a lot to make them fall, but still another game stood between us and the championship.

Those who saw the Ellet game can well remember that feeling of not having enough to take the Orangemen. But they also remember the fighting spirit and drive that brought us back into the game and to the championship.

To the seniors we say farewell. You played the game like champs and as a reward you are champs. To the rest of the team we say keep this fighting spirit and may it carry you, too, to championship. And to the team, our hats are off to you. May this be a fitting tribute to you and your job well done. Now you have a memory you may keep forever. A memory of football and a hard earned championship.

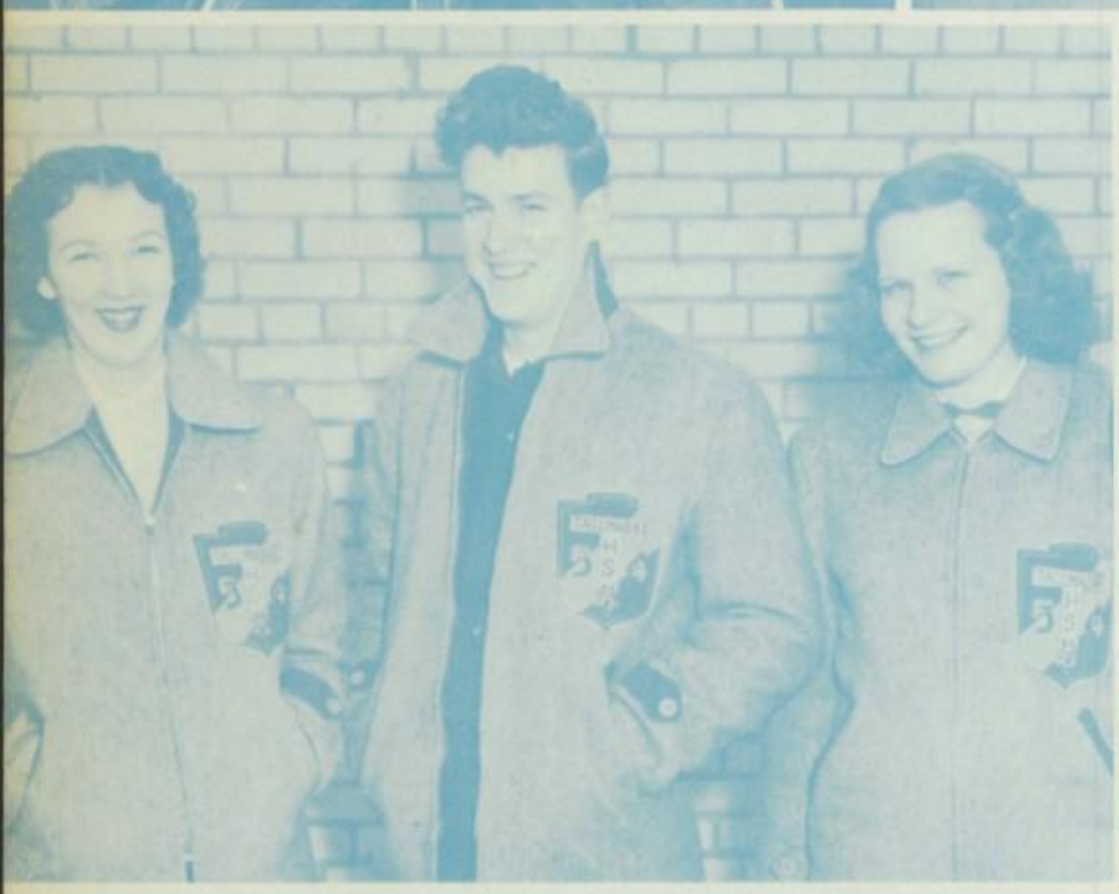
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

We, the Circle Light Staff of 1953, wish to thank the Tallmadge student body and all our many friends for their helpful suggestions. Especially do we extend our thanks to Mr. Howard Carpenter and Mr. and Mrs. Vince Crawford of Carpenter's Studio for their unending help; Don Leahy of Inter-Collegiate Press; Roy Miller for the many trips and photographs he made for us; and our advisor, Miss Leasure.

THANK YOU!!!


The Circle Light Staff wishes to thank all the advertisers for making the publication of this book possible.
